SUPPLEMENT

JULY, 1893

DEAR SUBSCRIBER:—We want to call your attention to Rules 1, 3, 4 and 5, in the "New Rules of Ex. Com." page 2 of document enclosed. It was thought by our Ex. Com. that you would most heartily approve this plan of circulating the literature. But, if you do not, please write us at once, and we shall try to satisfy you. If you desire any quantity of the literature yourself, each issue, for your personal reading and circulation, it is suggested that you call for a variety of our "Red and White Leaflets." These are in various sizes and go a great ways, and you can draw three pages for a cent on the balance of your subscription. Drop us a card in regard to your wishes and they will be regarded.

If we do not hear anything from you, we shall send you simply one of our little leaflets each issue and distribute the balance in your name.

Address—

REV. EDWARD THOMSON,
Sec'y American Sabbath Union,
South Los Angeles, Cal.
